

Statement by Sam Nunn on Ukraine's Announcement
April 12, 2010

"I welcome the news that Ukraine will eliminate its highly enriched uranium. This is an important step in making the world safer and reducing the risk of nuclear terrorism. I congratulate both President Yanukovich and President Obama and I hope that Ukraine's commitment will encourage other nations to eliminate their weapon usable material."